For Immediate Release:
Child Care Annual Open House and Children's Art Show Auction
features talent from seacoast children through age 12

Portsmouth, NH (April 25, 2011)-The Community Child Care Center of Portsmouth invites you to its Annual Open House and Children's Art Show on Thursday May 5, 5:30-7PM at the Community Campus. Individual art and group art will be sold in a silent auction to benefit classroom budgets. The Open House and Art Show event highlights early childhood, all-inclusive classrooms, and before & after school programs, and features a variety of art from infants to 5th grade children.

"This event is open to everyone and raises funds for much-needed classroom art and cleanup supplies for 12 campus classrooms and 4 offsite PEAK locations," said Lori Parsons, Lead Teacher and art show organizer. "It's a chance to meet teachers and see the state-of-the-art environment that Community Child Care offers." PEAK is the Program for Elementary Aged Kids, a before and after school program for children through 5th grade all Portsmouth Elementary Schools and at Greenland Central School. Child care spots are now available in preschool, Kindergarten, and PEAK classrooms, and applications will be accepted for all ages at the event.
